Bylaw Changes

Bylaws are an important governing document for cooperatives. They establish the "rules" for which cooperatives conduct business. Each year the DCEC Board of Directors review the cooperative's bylaws to determine whether any changes are necessary. Changes may be proposed to members in response to industry events and/or to bring the governing document up to contemporary standards. Many of the original terms of the bylaws date back to the mid-1940s when DCEC was formed and, over time, changes may be necessary to ensure that the document remains current, such as new laws and other legal requirements or to adapt to changes in technology (e.g. electronic storage of data).

At a February 2011 board meeting, DCEC Directors voted to propose several changes to DCEC bylaws for member consideration at the 2011 DCEC Annual Meeting on September 9, 2011. According to New York State Law, only DCEC members have the right to change the Co-operative's bylaws but the Board, who is directed by the bylaws, can recommend changes to members.

The DCEC Board is recommending the following bylaw changes for member consideration at the 2011 Annual Meeting. The changes are primarily intended to strengthen governance practices, reduce operating costs and provide for greater time for certain events and notices.

- Bylaw 1: Allow Members to Vote by Absentee Balloting (& Elimination of Proxy Voting)
- Bylaw 2: Eliminate Ability for Floor Nominations in Director Elections
- Bylaw 3: Reduce the Size of the Board from 9 to 7 Directors (with corresponding re-districting)
- Bylaw 4: Strengthen Requirements for Director Qualifications
- Bylaw 5: Provide More Time for Notice of Member Meetings & Nominating Committee Appointments

For more information and detailed bylaw changes please visit www.dce.coop or contact our office for more information.

Can't Make the Meeting? Your Vote Counts!

If for some reason you are not planning to attend the 2011 Annual Meeting, you can still make your vote count by completing the below proxy statement to assign your vote to another active DCEC member who may vote on your behalf. Members may vote up to three proxies at the Annual Meeting.

Members can return this form to the DCEC office with their bill payment at P.O. Box 471, Delhi, NY 13753. Proxies must be received by Friday, September 2, 2011 to be valid at the Annual Meeting.

DELAWARE COUNTY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, INC. OFFICIAL PROXY

As an active member of the Delaware County Electric Cooperative, Inc., a New York State Cooperative, I, the undersigned, hereby appoint:

Name of Member Receiving Proxy (Please Print)

I my proxy to vote in my stead at the membership meeting to be held at the Delaware Academy & Central School, Delhi, New York on Friday, September 9, 2011. I realize that it is my duty as a member of the Cooperative to take an active interest in its affairs and to exercise my voting privilege in person. I have carefully considered the business which, to my knowledge, is to be acted upon. I have discussed it with my neighbors, who are also members, and have decided to give my proxy to the person above named who is a member in his/her own right and who has agreed to vote this proxy on all matters as he/she honestly believes I would vote if I were present. I hereby ratify and confirm my proxy's vote in my stead.

2011 Candidate Biographies

The DCEC membership are to elect three directors to serve on the Board of Directors during the Annual Meeting on Friday, September 9, 2011. The following candidates for the positions of District Directors have been identified by the 2011 Nominating Committee.

DISTRICT 2 Candidates:

Edward "Rusty" Pick runs a successful construction company, R & S Construction, and has been a home builder and mason for 35 years. He served on the Harpersfield Town Council for 12 years. After opening a lumber yard, Harper Hill Building Supply, he resigned from his position on the council to avoid a potential conflict-of-interest in supplying the Town building materials for their new Post Office and Highway Department addition.

Ed and his wife Sharon have owned and operated Harper Hill Farm in Harpersfield since 1975. They opened the farm on 10 acres. Over the years they have expanded it to 400 acres to produce hay along with raising and training horses. Their son Edward is a graduate of Rochester Institute of Technology and their younger son, Brian, is currently attending SUNY Delhi. Both are active on the family horse farm.

"In 1975 I watched a DCEC crew construct a one mile of new line to my farm. The men impressed me because of their skill and commitment to serve members. My goal is to continue the sort of ideals and best interests that many of the fellow members of the Cooperative follow during these tough and challenging times."

Stephen Rinehart grew up in Pawling, NY in Dutchess County. He graduated from high school in 1972 and shortly after joined the Army. He was discharged from the army in 1975 and afterward purchased a farm in Delaware County in 1979. He has been a farmer for 33 years. In 1990, he became a school bus driver for Stamford Central School and then went on to become the Transportation Supervisor in 1996 to present.

"I think it's great how the co-op manages to keep rates lower for its members and I would like to have input in regards to what happens at DCEC."

DISTRICT 5 Candidate (sole candidate):

Paul Menke, is an active dairy farmer on Peakes Brook Road where he lives with his wife, Candice. Paul was one of the first farmers to volunteer his farm for experimentation in the pilot program for the Watershed Committee. Paul is a Councilman for the Town of Meredith as well as a currently serving on the Board of Directors for DCEC. He is also a past member of the Meredith Town Planning Board and served on the Delaware County Farm Service Agency Committee for a number of years.

"I would like to see the Cooperative continue with the Right-of-Way Clearing which we are all so proud of in order to maintain our system reliability. Also, in the next couple of years I would like to see the Elm and Depot Street facilities updated."

"Looking back when I was a kid, and my parents would take me to DCEC Annual Meetings. It was the big outing we took for the year. I remember thinking about what it would be like to sit up front with the directors and now I am. I was proud of DCEC then and I am still proud of the co-op now. I encourage people to attend the Annual Meeting to get the latest update on what is happening at the Cooperative."

DISTRICT 9 Candidates :

Frank Winkler lives in Andes with his wife Vicki. He is currently retired but works part-time as a Resource Conservation Planner with the Delaware County Soil and Water Conservation District. He is also the Chair of the Andes Town Planning Board and a Director for the Catskill Forest Association.

“I appreciate the opportunity to have served on the DCEC Board of Directors over the past six years. I am proud to see a high level of satisfaction from members for DCEC’s performance and I would like to thank the DCEC employees for that. With the high level of satisfaction I feel that we are obligated to do our best. I am glad to be a part of the organization and would appreciate the opportunity to serve another three years.”

Russell Darling graduated from Andes Central School in 1972 and went on to SUNY Delhi to study Dairy Science. Russell has worked as a dairy farmer for 41 years. His farm has approximately 350 registered Jerseys. He lives in Andes with his wife Linda and his children; Bradley, Amber, Charlie and Dawson. Bradley works for the Town of Andes Highway Department, Amber and Charlie work on the farm, and Dawson will be going into the 6th grade. Russell is very proud that this is the 6th generation to work on the family farm that has been around since 1869.

Russell served on the Andes Fire Department for 25 years, he is now an honorary member. He also is a Director for the New York State Jersey Club.

“I am happy with how DCEC operates. We are seldom out of power. They do an excellent job.”
